

One of our own the NAEC Pres.

(Craig and His Father Ray Zomchek in the Shop)

Craig Zomchek was recently elected president of the NAEC, the elevator industries largest vertical transportation association in North America. He is a past President and Vice President of The Chicago Elevator Association. Craig is also the Business Manager at Colley Elevator Company. He began working summers in 1996 helping out in the back of the shop; in 2000 he began working in the office full time while finishing his undergraduate degree at DePaul University with a double major in Marketing and Management. He went on to obtain his masters in business in Strategy, Execution and Valuation as well as Marketing. Craig is a licensed elevator inspector in the State of IL, IN, and WI. He excels in taking the complicated tasks of understanding an issue with a buildings elevator and putting it into terms a non-elevator industry person can understand. Congratulation Craig!

Otis Elevator Accused of Negligence

A woman is suing Alexian Brothers Medical Center and Otis Elevator Company for alleged negligence and for allegedly taking insufficient measures to prevent injuries. Christine Erfurth filed a complaint on July 11 in Cook County Circuit Court, alleging she sustained serious physical injuries on Nov. 2, 2015 when the elevator in which she was riding fell from the second floor. The plaintiff holds the defendants responsible for allegedly failing to repair the elevator despite allegedly knowing that it was defective. The plaintiff seeks judgment against the defendant in an amount greater than $50,000 plus court costs. She is represented by Mark A. Bazzanella of Law Offices of Mark A. Bazzanella in Chicago.
